Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Due to the distance, some of the young children feel uncomfortable during the bus ride. It is suggested to consider changing the location to places like Tsing Yi Park or Tai Po Waterfront Park. 2. The objective of "cultivating an attitude of caring for the natural environment" is not very strong. It is recommended to reinforce how we can take care of the environment through pictures or stories after the activity. For example, not picking flowers, not damaging trees or other natural features, and not littering.

Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	The children had the opportunity to ride and explore trains from different eras, allowing them to distinguish their differences. The staff members were also very dedicated in providing explanations. However, their explanations were more abstract and better suited for K2 or K3 children. Therefore, during the next visit, it would be more appropriate for the teachers to provide explanations that are more tailored to the children's level.
